Rules of Procedure: Public Comment/Input Policy

PUBLIC COMMENT/INPUT POLICY

1. Speakers shall address the ZBA from the front table/lectern and begin by stating their name and address.
2. Speakers are encouraged to be as factual and brief as possible, and to restrict comments to the application and property under consideration.
3. Speakers shall address all comments and questions to the Chair.
4. Speakers may address the ZBA more than once, but subsequent comments must bring new information, correct the record, or raise new questions.
5. If there are numerous people in the audience who would like to comment on an issue, and it is known that all share the same opinion, it is requested that a spokesperson be selected to speak for the entire group. If this arrangement cannot be made, it may be necessary for the Chair to restrict each speaker to a limited time in order that all may be heard.
6. Members of the ZBA may question any speaker to gather information.
7. Off-topic comments and interruptions from members of the audience shall be ruled out of order.
